Double and Triple Names in Current Anthroponomy of Iasi

The current image of our surnames is the consequence of the action of a long series of events and factors that have contributed, in past centuries, to the idea of setting family name, and then to fix the family name itself, in graphic form transmitted through generations through acts of civil status. Over time, for various reasons, in the denomination have appeared the double and triple names. This is what we analyze in this article.