Romanian Studies at the University of Strasbourg. From an “Orchid” Status to Comprehensive Studies

The article Romanian Studies at the University of Strasbourg. From an “Orchid” Status to Comprehensive Studies renders a brief history of the Romanian studies and researches at the University of Strasbourg with a special stress on the wide variety of activities organized by the Department of Romanian Studies in the last years. The most important academic and cultural activities recently achieved by the Department are described in more details.